HOW WE WORK

We require a final count 7 days prior to the event. Should the count increase more than 10% of the final count, you will be charged a per-head price for every additional guest.

Chef for Hire, LLC also requires a 50% deposit due 30 days prior to the event, if applicable time allows. The balance of the bill is due on the date of the party. Should there be a cancellation of the event date, Chef for Hire will retain a non-refundable deposit of $500.00 and will return the remainder of the deposit to the client. If the client chooses to pick a new date, Chef for Hire will put the remainder of the deposit toward the new date.

Should the event take more time than quoted, there will be an additional hourly charge for every extra hour spent by the staff.

STAFFING NOTE

All parties over 6 guests will require additional staffing and will be suggested in the quote. We provide one server per 10 guests, depending on the services needed by the client.
